PLEASE NOTE:

Applicants can be any trainee in reproductive health (basic scientist, nursing, reproductive endocrine and infertility fellow, etc.) whose abstract submission follows a reproductive medicine theme with a focus on endometriosis. Applicants must select the category "Benign Gynecological Disease" with the subcategory "Endometriosis & Adenomyosis". To be considered for this award, applicants must complete the following by April 23, 2024:

1. The applicant must be the first author of an abstract submitted to the Traveling Scholars section of the ASRM abstract submission website.
2. Only one abstract per applicant may be submitted to the Traveling Scholars category. It is recommended that applicants submit their best abstract. Any applicant submitting more than one abstract to the Traveling Scholars category will be disqualified from consideration for this award.
3. Applicants must select the Nezhat Travel Scholar Award on the award page during the abstract submission.
4. The applicant must email the following items to Megan Miller, SRS Member Services Administrator; mmiller@asrm.org.
 - o The completed application form
 - o Applicant's curriculum vitae
 - o A copy of the submitted abstract printed from the 'Review and Submit' page from the abstract submission system portal
 - o A letter of recommendation from applicant's training supervisor
5. Prior to submitting an application, applicants and their training supervisor should ensure the applicant's availability to participate in the SRS pre-congress course and the ASRM Scientific Congress & Expo in the year they are applying. Failure to attend all sessions will result in forfeiture of the award. Arrival Saturday, October 19, 2024 - Departure, Thursday, October 24, 2024.
